No amount is insignificant, everything helps!

yajṣa-dāna-tapaḥ-karma na tyājyam kāryam eva tat yajṣo dānam tapaś caiva pāvanāni manīṣinām

- Bhagavad Gita 18.5

Acts of sacrifice, charity and penance are not to be given up; they must be performed. Indeed, sacrifice, charity and penance purify even the great souls.

India, since centuries, is a country well known for its Vedic culture, its famous temples, the righteous human beings and above all the deep philosophy of Sanatana Dharma. By Krishna's grace, even today's society has a chance to become spiritually situated, while living in a material world and harmonize the broken link between human and God. By the mercy of HDG Srila Prabhupada, the Founder Acharya of the World wide Hare Krishna Movement, today, in India and in many parts of the World, beautiful temples are being built which are bringing together people from various walks of life to Krishna Consciousness.

Lord Sri Krishna says in Bhagavad Gīta 9.26: “If one offers me with love and devotion a leaf, a flower, a fruit or water, I will accept it.”

The Supreme Lord, Sri Krishna, is not in need of anything from us; but when we offer Him something depending on our capacity, He blesses us with everything that we need to progress in achieving the ultimate goal of our life.

It was a prime duty in the good olden days, to build temples and conduct festivals and enlighten people in Knowledge about God and his activities. The Puranas also glorify the act of temple construction for Krishna in this way:

According to Vamana Purana: “Whoever constructs or helps to construct a Vishnu temple will protect eight generations of fathers, grandfathers, and forefathers from falling into hell.”

And, “By building a temple for Sri Madhava, one can attain the eternal spiritual world (Vaikuntha).

Skanda Purana: “Just by starting the construction of a temple for Lord, sins committed in seven births will be wiped out and one will deliver his forefathers who are suffering in hellish planets” and “who sponsors a temple of Lord Vishnu, gains ten million times the merits accrued by Yajna, Austerities, Charities, Pilgrimage and study of Vedas.

Padma Purana: “Mortals who help to construct a temple of Lord Vishnu do not return to this world, they return to the abode of Lord Vishnu”.

Srimad Bhagavatam 11.27.51: Lord Krishna tells Uddhava: One who offers the Deity gifts of land, markets, cities and villages so that the regular daily worship and special festivals of the Deity may go on continually will achieve opulence equal to My own.

Srimad Bhagavatam 11.27.52-53: “By installing the Deity of the Lord, one becomes king of the entire earth, by building a temple for the Lord, one becomes ruler of the three worlds, by worshiping and serving the deity, one goes to the planet of Lord Brahma, and by performing all three of these activities one achieves a transcendental form like My own. But one who simply engages in devotional service with no consideration of fruitive results attains Me. Thus whoever worships Me according to the process I have described will ultimately attain pure devotional service unto Me.”

With love and affection, one should try to give something to Krishna from one's source of income. Then one's life will be successful. Krishna is full in all opulences; He does not need anything from anyone. But if one is prepared to give something to Krishna, that is for one's own benefit.

3) Nitya Seva

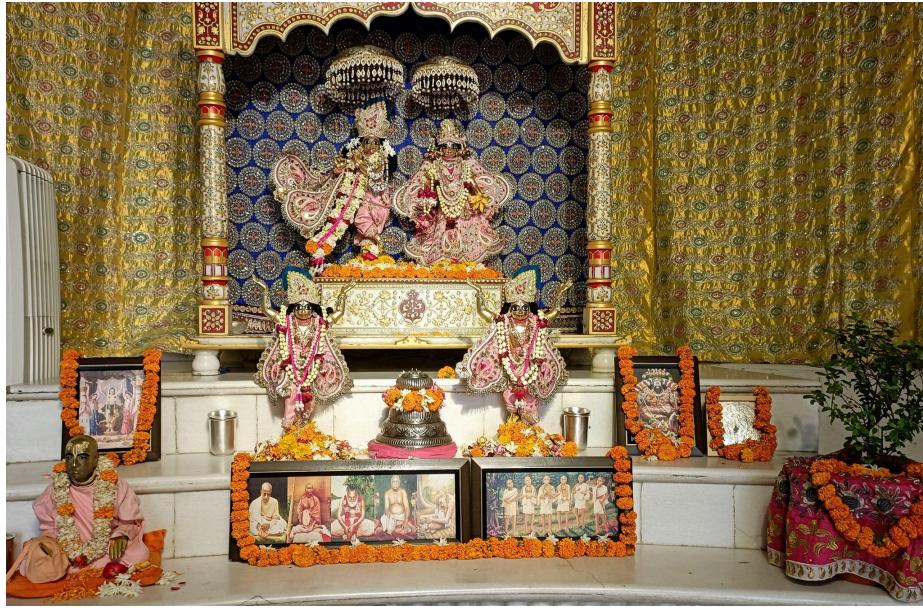

Nitya Seva

Nitya Seva of Sri Lordship: A Path of Eternal Devotion

In the tradition of Sanatana Dharma, the practice of Nitya Seva (daily service) to the Divine Lord holds immense spiritual significance. When it comes to Nitya Seva, this sacred duty involves daily offerings and rituals performed with utmost reverence and love for the Lord, ensuring that the deities in our temples are honored and cared for at all times.

What is Nitya Seva?

Nitya Seva, is the wonderful opportunity to serve and reciprocate the Love, Lord showers on us. In this, donors like YOU, would generously contribute for the daily services to the Lord.

Benefits of Offering Nitya Seva:

1. pūjādīnāṁ pravāhārthaṁ mahā-parvasv athānv-aham
Kṣetrāpana-pura-grāmān dattvā mat-sārṣṭitām iyāt

“One who offers the Deity gifts of land, markets, cities and villages so that the regular daily worship and special festivals of the Deity may go on continually will achieve opulence equal to My own.

(Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam

2. “sv-alpam apy asya dharmasya trāyate mahato bhayāt.” a little advancement on this path can protect one from the most dangerous type of fear”. Krsna is himself promising that he would protect the one who serves him. Your charity will purify you from the karmic reactions.
3. Your generosity would help upkeep spiritual practices for the benefit of Humanity.
4. Becoming a Nitya sevak ensures that our service to God and society keeps on going smoothly every day.
5. All Nitya sevaks become our regular patrons, thus they receive regular updates of various programs at the temple.

The Importance of Nitya Seva

In Vedic scriptures, the concept of Seva is deeply emphasized as a way of expressing love and surrender to the Supreme Being. The Bhagavad Gita (Chapter 9, Verse 26) highlights this through Lord Krishna's words:

patram puṣpam phalam toyam yo me bhaktyā prayacchati tad aham bhakty-upahṛtam aśnāmi prayatātmanah

"If one offers Me with love and devotion a leaf, a flower, a fruit, or water, I will accept it."

This verse captures the essence of Nitya Seva, reminding us that it is not the grandeur of offerings that matter, but the love and devotion with which they are given. The continuous performance of the rituals ensures that the divine presence remains vibrant and active in the temple and within our hearts.

The Srimad Bhagavatam (1.2.8) further explains the benefits of such service:

dharmaḥ svanuṣṭhitah pumśāṁ viṣvaksena-kathāsu yaḥ
notpādayed yadi ratim śrama eva hi kevalam

"The occupational activities a man performs according to his position are only so much useless labor if they do not provoke attraction for the message of the Supreme Lord."

This points to the importance of performing our duties with an intention to serve the Supreme. Nitya Seva is one such sacred duty, offering us the chance to purify our hearts, develop divine qualities, and deepen our connection with the Lord.

In Katha Upanisad(2.2.13), it is stated :

nityo nityānām cetanaś cetanānām
eko bahūnām yo vidadhāti kāmān

"There are innumerable eternal living entities who are eternally and totally dependent upon the supreme singular living entity, the Supreme Lord. The Lord is eternally independent, and we are eternally dependent".

Lord Krishna out of his causeless mercy, takes care of an ant, even an elephant and of course, We who are eternally totally dependent on him for all our needs.

Supporting Nitya Seva through Donations

For centuries, temples have been centers of spiritual practice and service, sustained by the offerings and donations from devotees.

In the Brihadaranyaka Upanishad (5.2.1), it is said:

"Tyagenaike amṛtatvam ānaśuh"

"Through charity and renunciation, immortality is attained."

Supporting Nitya Seva through donations is a way for every individual to partake in the divine service and receive blessings. By contributing to the daily maintenance of temple services—offering food, clothes, lamps, and other essentials for the deity—one ensures that the spiritual energy of the temple remains vibrant, benefiting all who visit or seek divine grace.

In this spirit, we humbly request your support for the ongoing Nitya Seva at our temple. Your generous donations will directly contribute to the daily worship and care of Sri Lordship, ensuring that the deity is served with the highest standards of devotion. Whether large or small, every contribution helps to sustain this timeless tradition of Seva.

Your participation in this sacred duty will ensure that the tradition of Nitya Seva continues uninterrupted, bringing peace, prosperity, and spiritual fulfillment to all devotees.

To make a donation, please contact us at [contact details] or visit our temple office. You can also contribute online through [website link]. Let us come together to serve Sri Lordship with devotion and dedication, and may His blessings enrich our lives in abundance.

"yat karōṣi yad aśnāsi, yaj juhoṣi dadāsi yat yat tapasyasi kaunteya, tat kuruṣva mad-arpaṇam"
(Bhagavad Gita 9.27)

"Whatever you do, whatever you eat, whatever you offer or give away, and whatever austerities you perform—do that as an offering unto Me."

Let our acts of devotion in the form of Nitya Seva bring us closer to the Supreme Lord, transforming our everyday lives into an offering of love, purity, and divine joy.

4) Sri Vigraha Seva

01 Sri Vigraha Seva - Deity Worship(text matter)

Sri Vigraha Seva (Deity Worship): An Ancient Practice of Devotion

Vigraha Seva, or Deity worship, holds a significant place in the tradition of Sanatana Dharma. It is the practice of honouring and serving a sanctified image or form of a deity, believed to personify divine presence. This is the most pious practices aimed at connecting with the Supreme Personality and Srimati Radharani in the utmost personal way.

The Essence of Deity Worship

In the Vedic tradition, deities are not mere symbols or artistic representations. They are seen as sacred forms in which the divine descends, accepting the offerings, prayers, and love of the devotee. Through Deity worship, one acknowledges the divine presence in the material world and expresses reverence through offerings, prayers, and meditations.

Deity worship is essential because it offers a way for the devotee to focus their mind and heart on God. In our everyday lives, the human mind is distracted by countless desires and concerns, making it difficult to focus on the formless, infinite nature of the Divine. The deity, or vigraha, provides a personal and accessible form that makes this connection possible.

Scriptural References on Deity Worship

The Vedic scriptures provide ample evidence of the importance of Deity worship, emphasizing its transformative power and role in personal and spiritual development.

In the Bhagavad Gita (9.34), Lord Krishna says:

man-manā bhava mad-bhakto mad-yājī mām namaskuru
mām evaiṣyasi kaunteya yuktaivam mat-parāyaṇah

"Engage your mind always in thinking of Me, become My devotee, offer obeisances to Me, and worship Me. Being completely absorbed in Me, surely you will come to Me."

This verse clearly shows that Deity worship, through acts such as offering obeisances and engaging the mind in divine contemplation, is a vital practice for the devotee seeking liberation.

Similarly, in the Srimad Bhagavatam (11.27.12), Lord Krishna explains the importance of Deity worship:

śailī dāru-mayī lauhī lepyā lekhyā ca saikatī¹
mano-mayī maṇi-mayī pratimāṣṭa-vidhā smṛtā

"One should worship Me in My deity form by offering the most excellent paraphernalia, such as garments, fragrant oils, flowers, and incense, as well as sacred foodstuffs prepared in ghee and offered with devotion."

Here, the Lord outlines the process of worship, emphasizing the importance of sincerity and devotion in offering one's best to the deity. This practice cleanses the heart and brings the worshiper closer to God.

The Padma Purana (Uttara Khanda 93.9) also reinforces the significance of Deity worship:

"By serving the Deity with faith and devotion, one attains liberation. Indeed, the Lord accepts the humble service of His devotees through the deity form, which is non-different from Him."

This puranic verse emphasizes that the deity form is non-different from the Lord, highlighting the personal connection between the devotee and the Divine through such practices.

In Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam 11.27.52, it is stated

pratiṣṭhayā sārvabhaumāṁ sadmanā bhuvana-trayam pūjādinā brahma-lokaṁ tribhir mat-sāmyatām iyāt

By installing the Deity of the Lord one becomes king of the entire earth, by building a temple for the Lord one becomes ruler of the three worlds, by worshiping and serving the Deity one goes to the planet of Lord Brahmā, and by performing all three of these activities one achieves a transcendental form like My own.

The Transformative Power of Vigraha Seva

Engaging in Vigraha Seva purifies the mind and heart. It helps to cultivate humility, devotion, and a deep sense of surrender. The physical acts of bathing, clothing, and offering food to the deity are symbolic of cleansing one's own heart and mind, offering one's life in the service of the Supreme.

Furthermore, through Deity worship, the devotee learns the value of discipline, regularity, and attention to detail. Each act of service, no matter how small, becomes an opportunity for spiritual growth and transformation. As the devotee's heart becomes purified, the Lord, residing in the deity form, bestows His blessings, offering the devotee protection, guidance, and the ultimate reward of spiritual liberation.

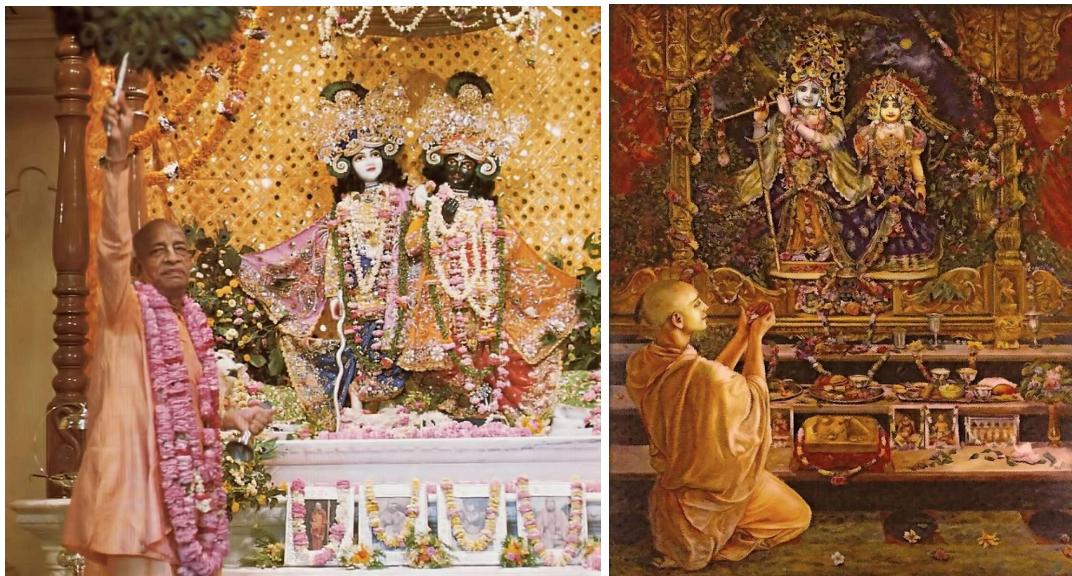

As we cannot perceive the Supreme spirit (Lord Sri Krishna) in our present condition, Krishna allows us to see Him in His Deity form made of material elements. He tells us that the Deity installed according to the directions of the scriptures is identical to Him.

Deity (archa vigraha) worship is a very important part of devotional service. It cleanses the heart of all dirty desires, purifies our vision and engages the worshiper in constant thought of how best to worship the Lord.

Those who help in the deity worship through monetary support, collect flowers, make garlands, cook for Krishna etc are all equally benefited, because for Krishna anything done for him with complete love and devotion is service and he accepts it and rewards the servitor multifariously.

Srila Prabhupada says: Decorate the Deity as nicely as possible with nice flowers and dress. You will forget all other false beauty.

(Srila Prabhupada's Letter, 22 October 1968, Seattle)

Radharani's Kitchen Seva

Srila Bhaktivinode Thakura an eminent Vaishnava saint writes in the Bhoga Arati as:

rādhikāra pakka anna vividha byañjana

parama ânande krishna korena bhojana

In great ecstasy and joy, Krishna eats the rice, curried vegetables, sweets and pastries cooked by Srimati Radharani.

Krishna is pleased when He honors foodstuffs prepared by his devotees. The best among them being Srimati Radharani, Krishna is most pleased when she prepares food for him.

Radharani, once had the opportunity to please Durvasa Muni with a delicious preparation of sweet rice. Durvasa Muni relished its nectarean taste and thus blessed her as, "Radha, may the grains You cook taste sweeter than nectar and may anyone who eats them be blessed with a long life span".

Thus, Mother Yasoda, invited Srimati Radharani to cook for Krishna as this would nourish Him physically with good health and he would taste nectar.

Pastimes of Vrindavana say that Radharani has never cooked a dish twice. Such an adorable skilled cook Radharani was, and of course, the best devotee.

Every kitchen where foodstuffs are cooked for the Deities is a representation of the kitchen of Radharani. Seeking her blessings to cook delectable food for Krishna, is a must for all devotees.

You can also be a part of this great service to the Divine Couple by donating for Radharanis's Kitchen Seva. Each pie of your donation would add up to the delicacies being prepared to please Krishna and what you get in return is manifold.

Come forward and join your hands to join the party of Srimati Radharani, to please Krishna!!

1) Rajbhog Seva

Raj Bhog Seva: Offering Nourishment to the Divine

Bhog Seva, the offering of food to the deity, is a key aspect of Deity worship in Sanatana Dharma. This sacred tradition embodies the heart of devotion—offering what we have with love and gratitude to the Supreme Being. In the form of Bhog Seva, devotees present food to the deity, believing that through this offering, they are not only nourishing the physical form of the Lord but also receiving His divine blessings in turn.

The Spiritual Significance of Rajbhog Seva

In Vedic culture, food is considered a gift from God, and offering it back to Him is an act of gratitude and devotion. The deity, or vighraha, is viewed as the living embodiment of the Divine, and Bhog Seva is a way to serve and nourish the Lord. The food offered becomes prasadam—sanctified food that is imbued with the deity's grace and compassion. Consuming prasadam purifies the mind and heart, and it is said to free one from sins.

Bhog Seva is not just an act of feeding the Lord in a ritualistic sense. It is an intimate and loving interaction between the devotee and the Supreme. The Lord, though self-sufficient, graciously accepts the offering made with love and devotion. It is said that even the simplest offering, if made with sincerity, pleases the Lord.

In the Bhagavad Gita (9.26), Lord Krishna explains the essence of Bhog Seva:

"Patram pushpam phalam toyam yo me bhaktyā prayacchati, Tad aham bhakty-upahritam asnāmi prayatātmanah."

"If one offers Me with love and devotion a leaf, a flower, fruit, or water, I will accept it."

This verse reveals that it is not the opulence of the offering that matters, but the love and devotion with which it is given. The Lord, who is self-sufficient, accepts even the simplest of offerings when they are made with a pure heart.

Similarly, the Srimad Bhagavatam (10.81.4) describes the story of Sudama, a poor Brahmin who offered Lord Krishna a handful of flat rice. Despite the humble nature of the offering, Krishna accepted it with great delight, demonstrating that devotion is the most important ingredient in Bhog Seva.

In the Padma Purana (Uttara Khanda 9.37), it is stated:

"One who offers food to the deity with devotion will never suffer from hunger, nor will they be deprived of life's necessities. The Lord, pleased by the offering, blesses the devotee with all that is needed."

This verse affirms the spiritual and material benefits of Bhog Seva. By serving the Lord through food offerings, the devotee not only earns spiritual merit but also ensures their own sustenance and well-being.

The Practice of Rajbhog Seva

Bhog Seva is performed daily in temples and homes, following specific guidelines laid down by the scriptures. The offering is made with clean, freshly prepared food that is free from impurities. The food must be vegetarian and cooked with a sense of devotion, keeping the Lord in mind throughout the preparation.

Before offering the food, it is placed before the deity on a clean plate, and prayers are recited to invoke the Lord's presence and to ask Him to accept the offering. The devotee remains in a humble state of mind, knowing that the Lord's acceptance of the offering is a great blessing.

The Blessings of Prasadam

After the offering is made, the food becomes prasadam, sanctified by the Lord's touch. Prasadam is not ordinary food—it carries the divine energy and blessings of the deity. By consuming prasadam, the devotee is spiritually uplifted, and their material desires are gradually purified.

The Chaitanya Charitamrita (Antya 16.60) glorifies prasadam as follows:

"Maha-prasade govinde, nama-brahmani vaisnave, Svalpa-punya-vatam rajan visvaso naiva jayate."

"In the mercy of prasadam, the Supreme Lord, the holy name, and the devotees, only those with a small amount of pious credits have difficulty understanding the true value of these."

This verse illustrates the profound spiritual value of prasadam and the mercy it carries. It is through prasadam that devotees receive the grace of the Lord, which helps them advance on the spiritual path.

According to Chandogya Upanishad 7.26.2

ahara-suddhau sattva-suddhih sattva-suddhau

dhruba smrtih smrti-lambhe sarva-granthinam vipra-moksah

By performance of yajna, one's eatables become sanctified, and by eating sanctified foodstuffs, one's very existence becomes purified; by the purification of existence, finer tissues in the memory become sanctified, and when memory is sanctified, one can think of the path of liberation, and all these combined together lead to Krsna consciousness, the great necessity of present-day society.

(quoted in Bhagavad Gita 3.11 Purport)

Out of causeless love, Krishna provides us with all the necessities and in gratitude if we offer him with love and devotion a little of foodstuff, he is very much pleased. His pleasure would shower upon us blessings and prosperity.

The Shastras reveal that Lord has to be served food utilizing grains, ghee, milk, vegetables, sugar, yogurt etc which should be prepared with love and sanctity.

All the standards being followed to the best possible in HKM Bhilai, you have a special opportunity to offer your gratitude to the lord through this special seva, Rajbhog seva.

The Rajbhog offered to the omnipotent lord is an array of choicest delicacies. Avail this great opportunity to please the lord by serving Rajbhog and deepen your love for Him.

"gopī-bhartuh pada-kamalayor dāsa-dāsānudāsaḥ"

I identify Myself only as the servant of the servant of the servant of the lotus feet of Lord Śrī Kṛṣṇa, the maintainer of the gopis.

(Śrī Caitanya-caritāmṛta Madhya
13.80)

Lord Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu, hereby stresses the importance of being a servant of the sadhus who are the devotees of Lord Krishna.

Srila Prabhupada often says: “A sādhu is described in Bhagavad-gītā as one who unflinchingly engages in devotional service. If one simply has unflinching faith in Kṛṣṇa, the Supreme Person, he is understood to be a sādhu”.

Such sadhus help us in spiritual advancement, by cutting the strong material knots. The knowledge we gain from them can't be repaid. Caring for such sadhus helps us attract Lord Krishna's attention, as said by Lord Chaitanya.

Sādhu (“good man”) and sādhvī (“good woman”) are Sanskrit terms which refer to those who have chosen to renounce worldly life in order to focus on their own spiritual practices and also help others overcome this ocean of material grief.

Sadhu seva, or Vaishnava seva, refers to serving the lord's such great dear devotees.

Sadhus living an austere life, need helping hands for their survival. HKM Bilai is giving you the opportunity to serve the sadhus. Donating to sadhus opens the path to blessings in abundance.

Donate profusely and adore the pleasure of giving.

*"I am not the master, nor the controller, nor even an independent devotee—
I am simply the servant of the servant of the servant of the lotus feet of Lord Krishna, the beloved maintainer of the gopis."
— Śrī Caitanya-caritāmṛta, Madhya 13.80*

This profound statement by Lord Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu highlights the true path to spiritual greatness—humble service to the pure devotees of the Lord.

The Power of Serving Sadhus

Lord Chaitanya emphasized that the fastest way to reach Krishna is by serving His dear devotees, the sādhus—those who have given up worldly pursuits to live a life of purity, wisdom, and compassion.

As Srila Prabhupada explains:

"A sādhu is one who unflinchingly engages in devotional service to Krishna. Simply by having strong faith in the Lord, one is considered a true saint."

Such sadhus guide us on the spiritual path, helping to untie the deep knots of material attachment. Their wisdom, guidance, and blessings are beyond value. We cannot repay them—but we can honor them through service.

What Is Sadhu Seva?

Sadhu seva—also known as Vaishnava seva—means to lovingly support those great souls who live simply, yet work tirelessly to uplift others spiritually. These devotees, living in humility and austerity, rely on the support of kind-hearted people for their basic needs.

By serving and supporting sadhus, we not only show gratitude but also attract the merciful glance of Lord Krishna Himself.

Join Hands with HKM Bhilai

HKM Bhilai offers you a sacred opportunity to participate in sadhu seva by supporting saintly devotees and spiritual teachers who dedicate their lives to spreading Krishna consciousness.

Srila Prabhupada explains in his purport

A sādhu is not just an ordinary man with a saffron robe or long beard. A sādhu is described in Bhagavad-gītā as one who unflinchingly engages in devotional service.

Even though one is found not to be following the strict rules and regulations of devotional service, if one simply has unflinching faith in Kṛṣṇa, the Supreme Person, he is understood to be a sādhu. Sādhurevasamantavyah [Bg. 9.30]. A sādhu is a strict follower of devotional service.

Should one seek material benedictions from such a sadhu?

One should not. Srila Prabhupada adds:

These are the gifts of a sādhu. If we want to associate with a sādhu, we cannot expect him to give us instructions on how to improve our material condition, but he will give us instructions on how to cut the knot of the contamination of material attraction and how to elevate ourselves in devotional service.

The Sanskrit terms sādhu (“good man”) and sādhvī (“good woman”) refer to those who have chosen to renounce worldly life in order to focus on their own spiritual practices. The words come from the root sādh, which means “reach one’s goal”, “make straight”, or “gain power over”. The same root is used in the word sādhanā, which means “spiritual practice”. Sadhu literally means one who practices a “sadhana” or a path of spiritual discipline.

“Seva” (also Sanskrit) means “selfless service” or work performed without any expectation of reward or repayment. Seva, although not performed for personal material gain, can encourage one’s spiritual growth and at the same time contribute to the improvement of a community.

Sadhu seva, or Vaishnava seva, refers to serving the lord's dear devotees who have dedicated their lives to his loving devotional service. At the ashram, as well as serving the resident mothers, we also serve the sadhus, or wandering monks, of Vrindavan by offering aid. This includes food, clothing, shelter, and medical treatment.

Why Donate To Sadhu

Sadhus are highly revered in our Indian culture and tradition. Many sadhus reside in holy land of Ayodhya, desiring to spend the rest of their lives in the service of the Lord.

They lead a simple and austere life engaging themselves in devotional activities. The sadhus have surrendered to Lord Krishna, they perform bhajans and kirtans in temples.

We can also find them circumambulating the entire Ayodhya. They generally do not have a fixed accommodation and are dependent on the kindness of devotees for their sustenance. As these sadhus are very dear to the Lord, we consider it our duty to serve them.

It is important for people to involve in Sadhu Seva to serve the lord's dear devotees.

They are the ones who dedicated their lives to loving devotional services. At HARE KRISHNA MOVEMENT : Bhilai-Raipur, we offer an opportunity to privileged individuals to serve the dear devotees. Serve the sadhus and wandering monks offering aid to them including clothing, food, and all kind of treatment. Doing such things will bring you closer to GOD. Serving god's dear devotees is an excellent way to make God happy as they are the carrier of the Lord's compassion and it is important to care about their needs. Serve at Sadhu Seva in HKM : Bhilai-Raipur to express your gratitude, serve and donate food and clothes with an open heart and enjoy the sense of joy.

Gyaan Daan Seva

We are submerged in a dark ocean of skyscraper buildings, factories, addictions, war and ultimately unhappiness and alas! We don't even know it.

But one man in his seventies, surviving two massive heart attacks, single handedly, held the torch up high and spread its light everywhere. He lives forever in his books.

Yes, it's the fearless warrior of Lord Sri Krishna, His Divine Grace A. C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada about whom we are talking.

His mission (as ordered by his Spiritual Master HDG Srila Bhaktisiddhanta Saraswati Thakur) was to translate the magnanimous Indian Vedic texts into English and deliver to the Western World, thus to spread the teachings of Sri Chaitanya, beyond the borders of India. Books and books only occupied his trunk on his journey to America and those trunkful books have transformed hundreds and thousands of people from various walks of life into Krishna Conscious happy living entities.

“In this modern Godless civilization, everyone is greatly suffering due to lack of the real knowledge of Krishna consciousness, and our task is very great and very important. We must deliver this pure science of God to everyone and give them the chance to make their lives successful”.

(Correspondence, Hawaii, 5/5/72)

Book distribution is solid. Even if they do not read, simply by touching they are benefited. It is so much powerful.

(Correspondence, Honolulu, 2/2/75)

Prabhupada's books and his strong statements with proof from The Scriptures have transformed the hearts of many atheistic people also. His books have obtained worldwide recognition from scientists to scholars, philosophers to philanthropists and continue to gain an unending reputation. Here's an example:

"I am impressed with how much the teachings of one man and the spiritual tradition he brought impacted themselves into the lives of so many people. In my view Srila Prabhupada's contribution is a very important one and will be a lasting one... This life of Srila Prabhupada is pointed proof that one can be a transmitter of truth and still be a vital and singular person. At what almost anyone would consider a very advanced age, when most people would be resting on their laurels, he harkened to the mandate of his own spiritual teacher and set out on the difficult voyage to America. Srila Prabhupada is one in a thousand, maybe one in a million."

-- Harvey Cox, Professor of Divinity, Harvard University

And now consider, if you would be a part of this global network of knowledge and help the poor souls come out of the pangs of an illusioned material web, what a blessing would that be!

At HKM Bhilai, books are being distributed since a long time which have impacted many to dedicate their lives for the cause of spreading Krishna Consciousness. You could be a reader, a book distributor or you can even choose to let us distribute the books freely by your generous donations. Feel free to drop in and find out more!

Bhagavatam Daan

Just as the Gaṅgā is the greatest of all rivers, Lord Acyuta the supreme among deities and Lord Śambhu [Śiva] the greatest of Vaiṣṇavas, so Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam is the greatest of all Puranas.
 (Śrimad Bhagavatam 12.13.16 Translation)

Enlightening less privileged people with the gift of transcendental knowledge present in Srimad Bhagavatam could help them cut down the knots of repeated birth and death, giving them the actual peace in life. When such a great literature is given in charity, the fruits just double up for the giver and the receiver of course begins a new life with Spiritual Value to it.

Often Prabhupada says: “There is no literature throughout the universe like Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam. There is no comparison. There is no competition. Every word is for the good of human society. Every word, each and every word”.

(Srila Prabhupada’s Lecture on SB 1.16.8 Los Angeles, January 5, 1974)

So, for all your gifting purposes, give a thought of presenting Srimad Bhagavatam, the Amalam Puranam to your loved ones.

Youth Empowerment Seva

Today's youth are the Leaders, Teachers, Guides of tomorrow, of the Future. It's quite a big responsibility in the hands of the parents, teachers and of course the Spiritual Institutions to instill in them the strong roots of our Vedic culture, knowledge and practices.

Overburdened by the educational demands and stress of rejection in peer groups, getting attracted to unnecessary culture has become their way of life.

To disentangle their webs of addiction, to free them from a dependent life and to make them understand the truth, eternity and bliss of Spiritual life, we await your support and helping hands.

Tasting the higher taste of Spiritual life, the Youth would eagerly turn towards Spirituality finding inner peace and joy, more promising than the illusory momentary happiness.

1. Weekly Character development programs for Youth: This would involve an understanding of the magnificent behavior of characters from our timeless Scriptures and Pastimes.
2. Spiritual Library For Youth: Young minds always hanker for knowledge of different things and when their inquisitiveness is given a right direction, certainly they will accept it.
3. Monthly Youth Empowerment Camps: Spreading the youth programs far and wide, we took this initiative of conducting monthly Spiritual camps to enlighten and empower the youth.
4. Annual Educational Trips for Youth: Exploring the Historic, pilgrimage places of India, youth would have a great time deepening their understanding of Spiritual Science and enjoying the blissful pastimes of Lord and his devotees.

Extend your helping hands to brighten the future of tomorrow's India.

Festival Seva

Observe many festivals that will keep both public and devotees alive. Temple means festivals and Festivals means chanting and distribution of Prasadam

(Letter to Tamala Krsna -- Bhaktivedanta Manor 8

August, 1973)

Prabhupada stressed on conducting many festivals, as it enlivens the temple atmosphere and makes everyone jubilantly sing and dance. There are many festivals in the Gaudiya Vaishnava calendar of which the most important ones are: Sri Krishna Janmashtami, Vyasa Pūja, Gaura Pūrnima, etc. It seems that for Krishna devotees, every day is a festival.

The Spiritual discourses, myriad of colorful altar decorations, flower garlands, multi-course food feasts, elaborate offerings of Arati and Abhishek, Kīrtans, etc bring in transcendental joy which barely anything of this world could give.

Prabhupada says: “taking part in these festivals means a step forward for our self-realization. Although you don’t understand what the festival is about, simply if you take part in these three things, chanting, dancing, and taking part in eating the prasādam, your life will gradually progress in spiritual advancement”.

To make these festivals jubilant and colorful, there is a need for all of us to join together and conduct it successfully.

By your generous donations, volunteering services, etc, you can help the Temple conduct the festival on a grand scale.

“Utsava means “pleasure.” Whenever some function takes place to express happiness, it is called utsava. Utsava, the expression of complete happiness, is always present, uninterrupted in the Vaikunṭhalokas, the abode of the Lord, who is worshipable even by demigods like Brahmā”.

(Śrīmad Bhāgavatm 3.19.31 Purport)

So let’s join in all the festivals here, so that we are always Krishna Conscious and finally join the eternal festivities...
